

Heep Hong Society Wanchai Center Music Therapy Play Groups

Music is a non-verbal communication a child uses and Play is the essence of a child's world. Music Therapy play groups at Heep Hong Society offer an ideal place for children to come together and interact under the supervision of a Music Therapist.

Through rhythm games, music listening, singing, improvisation, instruments playing, taking turns to lead or to play; Music Therapy play groups provide a supervised arena for children to develop:

- visual-spatial, analytical, mathematical and creative skills
- speech and verbal communication skills, social skills, self-esteem
- perceptual-motor systems, including listening, sensitivity, timing...etc
- memory systems, including attention span, memory recall, interactions...etc
- musical and rhythmic skills
